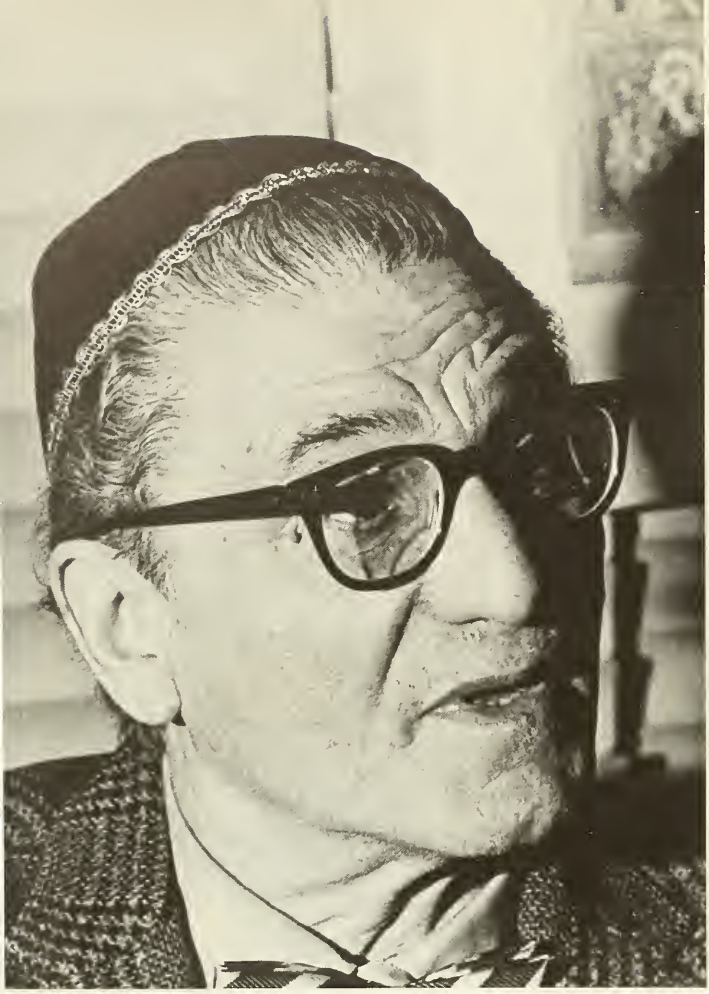
YESHIVA



Many may think that we honor Dr. Rosenberg because of his long service at Yeshiva. Although this alone deserves recognition, it is not our business to applaud a man merely because of his presence. We recognize in Dr. Rosenberg something special which in fact makes him memorable to all those who have come in contact with him.

As students we were sometimes disappointed by classes that were oriented only towards the collection of more facts and the development of greater skills than those that we had four years earlier. Although this is essential for a comfortable survival in our society, college should provide something greater than this. Academic life should be a period of serious questioning and intellectual search so that we can develop an attitude that will aid us in understanding, appreciating and adapting to our environment. During his long stay at Yeshiva, despite opposition, Dr. Rosenberg has not compromised this important ideal. In and out of the classroom he has always concerned himself with insuring that Yeshiva College remain consistant with its academic role. We therefore dedicate this MATMID 1972 in honor of

DR. RALPH ROSENBERG

SCHOLAR, HUMANIST, EDUCATOR

Des Menschen Fätigkeit Kann allzuleicht erschlaffen
Er liebt sich bald die unbedingte Ruh ;
Drum geb ich gern ihm den Gesellen zu,
Der reizt und wirkt und muss als Teufel schaffen.
